Paragraph 13 continued,

- 1) I began my employment with the respondent on October 3, 2005. My position at the time of my acceptance of their offer, was Courier 1.
- 2) From October 2005 until April 2006, I was deemed an exemplary employee. That is to say, an employee without problems or issues.
- 3) In February 2006 a co-worker approached my wife without provocation, and asked why did you marry that m-----g guy. I reported this to my immediate supervisor Clay Caulkin. My wife and I are a mix race couple. There was no action taken against this co-worker named Xavier, who works as a dispatcher in the courier department.
- 4) On April 18, 2006 I was subjected to derogatory statements about my race, and disability (Diabetic), by the shift supervisor Larry Moore. The next day I reported it to my immediate supervisor Clay Caulkin and the manager of the department Matt Clark. Two days later Matt Clark, the department manager assured me that he had taken care of the issue and that no further discussion would be necessary.
- 5) At the beginning of the month of May 2006 Larry Moore a supervisor in the courier department, is overheard telling a dispatcher that he is going to get that SOB, Lamas Alexander fired the hell out of here.
- 6) On June 1, 2006 as I enter the building I am greeted by my supervisor Clay Caulkin and asked to accompany him to the conference room at the other end of the building. When we arrive Larry Moore is waiting for us with a document in his hand. Larry Moore passes the documents to Clay Caulkin, who turns to me and states that I am being given a Level 1 written warning for 11 performance failures, that began with the night April 18, 2006.
- 7) On June 8, 2006 I was given a Level II written warning, that was revised and issued again on June 13, 2006.
- 8) On June 14, 2006 I filed an EEOC discrimination charge # 440-2006-05608.
- 9) I had applied for the position of Patient Access Representative at one the respondent's hospitals in early April 2006. I wanted to transfer to another facility internally so I would not lose benefits or pay.
- 10) I was interviewed on two separate occasions for this position and was told by the Patient Access Manager Nicole Jones I was considered a top candidate for the job. I did not get either of the vacant positions and was not notified that I had not been hired, even though the department Manager Nicole Jones told me that I would hear from herself or the recruiter within 2-3 days.
- 11) I was subsequently issued a Level III written warning on June 27, 2006 and terminated on June 28, 2006
- 12) I believed that I have been retaliated against, in violation of Title VII of the civil rights act of 1964, as amended.

(h) Grant such other relief as the Court may find appropriate.

I began my employment with Respondent on October 3, 2005. My most recent position is Courier I. In February 2006 and April 2006, I was subjected to derogatory remarks about my race and disability. I immediately complained to management about the remarks. On June 5, 2006, June 8, 2006, and June 13, 2006, I was issued written disciplinary actions.

I believe that I have been discriminated against because of my disability in violation of the Americans with Disabilities of 1990. I also believe that I have been discriminated against because of my race, Black, and have been retaliated against for complaining, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

 CONTINUING ACTION

THE PARTICULARS ARE (If additional paper is needed, attach extra sheet(s).):

On June 14, 2006, I filed EEOC Charge No. 440-2006-05608 against Respondent. I had applied for the position of Patient Access Representative at one of Respondent's hospital facilities in late April, 2006 or early May, 2006. I was interviewed on two occasions, the latest interview taking place in June, 2006. I had been told by the Patient Access Manager that I was considered a top candidate for one of the vacant positions. Respondent was to notify me as to its final decision within two to three days after my second interview. I was never notified at all. I was subsequently issued a Level III Disciplinary Warning on June 27, 2006. I was discharged on June 28, 2006.

I believe I have been retaliated against, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.

Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge.

Having been given 30 days in which to respond, you failed to provide information, failed to appear or be available for interviews/conferences, or otherwise failed to cooperate to the extent that it was not possible to resolve your charge.

While reasonable efforts were made to locate you, we were not able to do so.

You were given 30 days to accept a reasonable settlement offer that affords full relief for the harm you alleged.

The EEOC issues the following determination: Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained establishes violations of the statutes. This does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.

- NOTICE OF SUIT RIGHTS -

(See the additional information attached to this form.)

Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and/or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act: This will be the only notice of dismissal and of your right to sue that we will send you. You may file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) under federal law based on this charge in federal or state court. Your lawsuit must be filed WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this notice; or your right to sue based on this charge will be lost. (The time limit for filing suit based on a state claim may be different.)

Equal Pay Act (EPA): EPA suits must be filed in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.
